

Job Description

The Village Bakery is located at the base of the St. Elias Mountain Range in the Yukon and at the doorstep of Kluane National Park. Being so close to Kluane gives rise to several outdoor activities for all experience levels, including mountain biking, white water rafting, hiking, and camping, glacier-viewing, tours, canoeing, fishing, you name it. We are looking for people that share our interests and who can be part of a small team. We serve genuine home cooked food and fresh baked goods to travelers, hikers and anyone who is passing through our town. One of our main goals is to reduce waste and to educate our visitors about the impacts of waste on our planet. The mountains, trees, and scenery do the rest of our job for us – appreciation of our planet.

Must be Canadian or have a work permit in hand. Please do not apply if you do not meet these qualifications.
